BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests that interest may be allowed on the amount belonging to this temple which was kept in the Savings Bank (but till recently lately withdrawn therefrom & credited to Muz Funds)

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) The Dy Comr's letter explains the facts of the case clearly.

Flag Z 2) In G.O. No 477-84/M.7.612-09-4 dt 17-8-1910 it was stated that the Comptroller was right in requiring that no monies of Muzrai institutions, except Pudivat funds, should continue to be deposited in the Savings Bank the principle affirmed by Govt in this Govt order was that already enunciated in G.O no 5112-20/132 dt 6th Decr 1887.

3) The Dy Comr wants the present case to be treated as a special case, as the ~~interest on the~~ paditara & Deeparadhane expenses of the temple ~~also were~~ have to be met from the interest on the Savings Bank deposit. It is stated that ~~the~~ since the amount was credited to Muz Funds it has not been found possible to pay the pujari any remuneration. No difficulty would have arisen if the amount had been invested in Govt Securities in 1890 alone. The question of closing these Savings Bank accounts has been fully discussed in the files put up herewith. May Bor II be consulted as to how far the request of the Dy Comr can be complied with 2 Subd for orders

The date 9th Febry 1912 in the Dy Comrs letter is a mistake for ~~9~~ 9th Febry 1911. The archak has been paid his remuneration only up to the end of May 1910. The Amildar states that the comptroller issued an order dy 19-1-09 directing that the savings Bank account in question should be closed, as the amount was not a 'Pudivat' ~~and~~ In accordance with this order, the amount is stated to have been credted to Mug. Funds on 9-2-1911. The Amildar has further stated that the pay of the archak could not be paid ~~till the~~ up to 9-2-1911 (ie the date when the Savings Bank account was closed) for the reason that the comptroller refused to allow interest on the amount, as it was not a 'pudmat'. From this it may perhaps be inferred that interest was allowed only up to the end of May 1910. But whereas the comptroller's circular is dated the 9th jaury 1909 and the amount was withdrawn on 9-2-1911, it is not clear why ~~interest was to~~ the comptroller may have ~~been~~ allowed interest up to a certain intermediate date. It is also seen that a sum of Rs 1276-13-0 has been withdrawn from the Savings Bank As Rs 1200/- represents the principal, the balance of Rs 76-13-0 must have been the interest accruing thereon. It may also be a point for consideration whether Savings Bank interest could be allowed on the amount after its withdrawal ~~therefrom~~ from the Savings Bank, unless some source is pointed out

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the temple of Kalleswaraswami at Sipher is a Muzrai institution endowed with inam lands measuring 6 acres and 35 Guntas and bearing an annual Jodi of Rs 13 4 0 payable to Government. A portion of these lands was acquired in the year 1890 for extending Town of Sipher, a Sum of Rs 1200/- being as compensation. This amount was ordered in this Office No 166 dated June 1890 to be deposited in the Savings in the Taluq in the name of the temple, the interest realized thereon being paid to the Archak every half year for being utilised towards padikara Dupparadhana and similar expenses of the temple and also for his maintenance. As per this order, the interest was being paid to the Archak till the year 1901-02, from which date the pay of the Archak was fixed at Rs 3/- per mensem by this Office order no 495 dated 8th December, 1906. Payment has been made to the Archak till end of May 1910. But subsequently, in accordance with Government Order no 477-84/ Mug 612-09-4 dated 17th August 1910, a sum of Rs 1276-13-0, the balance including interest in the said Savings Bank account, was withdrawn on 9th February ~~1912~~ 1911. as not being a pradhaya fund, and credited to Muzrai funds in favor of the temple in question on the same date. As the amount under Muzrai Funds does not bear any interest, it has not been possible now to pay any remuneration to the pujari who has been complaining for nearly 2 1/2 years past. I request that interest at

Savings

Savings Bank rules may be sanctioned on this amount for the benefit of the temple up till now and in future also. I also request that a sum of Rs. 1200/- out of the said sum of Rs. 1276-13-0 may now be kindly ordered to be invested in the 4% Mysore State Loan or if that paper is not available in the 3½% Government of India Loan, so that the payment of the remuneration to the pujari in question might be continued as before out of the interest realized thereon.
